Animals surrounded her: Shetland ponies were at the front door, cows smiled at her in the pasture, and dogs guarded her. From 1945 to 1963, she experienced laughter, love, sadness, death and maturity. Her unique relatives taught her to persevere through the unusually sad events. In her clear style, she captures childhood memories. From the white farmhouse, she watched her town change from a farming community into a suburb. Her memories relate those special years.
