

Operation Alphabet (Hardback)

By Al MacCubbin

Thames Hudson Ltd, United Kingdom, 2011. Hardback. Condition: New. Luciano Lozano (illustrator). Language: English . Brand New Book. Welcome to a very secret world. Not many people know this, but inside a special, little red postbox in London, close to Big Ben, there exists a top secret department. It is so top secret that only the Queen of England, her Prime Minister, Spies and Cats know about it. And now you. . This book part of `The Ministry of Letters` series recounts the adventures of the top-secret government department The Ministry of Letters , the place where all the letters and all the words in the world are created. We are introduced to this secret and then told the story of Operation Alphabet , one of the most famous adventures ever to have happened to the letters who work in the Ministry. The star of the story is Charlie Foxtrot, who starts school aged five and finds learning the alphabet confusing and strange. We learn how the members of the Ministry s Special Alphabet Service (SAS) set off on an adventure to Scotland to find Charlie and teach him, by song and rhyme, the alphabet and the joy to be...
