Reviews

This type of publication is every thing and helped me seeking ahead and much more. It usually fails to charge too much. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

Not illustrated. 1906 Excerpt: . . . the classification and reporting of those accounts which relate to the revenue and expenses of the city, so that it is in direct line with the matter which has been offered. It is a comparison or the exposition of certain principles. The Chairman. That is all right. I will accept it. I have accepted this paper of Mr. Chapmans, which is a very interesting one and one that has attracted the attention of many, as Item No. 2. (Mr. Chapmans paper follows.) GOVERNING DISTINCTIONS IN MUNICIPAL ACCOUNTS, WITH SPECIAL REFERENCE TO THEIR CLASSIFICATION AS REFLECTED ON THE BOOKS OF THE COMPTROLLER OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK. The first idea which instinctively dominates the act of classifying accounts is the recognition of opposites with respect to a governing consideration, and the first distinction to be apprehended is accordingly dual, or as between the two extremes of a significant point of view. After thus establishing a primary differentiation each of the factors is in turn subdivided into its primary components, constituting a secondary differentiation, and so on by succeeding developments, retaining, however, the duplex scheme of analysis so far as the principle advantageously obtains, before breaking up into the final and multiplex analysis which marks the point at which diametric distinctions disappear and the individuality of each account or minor group constitutes it a class by itself. In the annual report of the comptroller of the city of New York the first broad distinction to be...
