AuthorHouse. Hardcover. Condition: New. 344 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.9in. Janet has been secretly in love with her millionaire boss, Paul. And when her boss was going through his divorce, he scheduled a trip to the Philippines to attend his three-year-old daughters visa interview with the United States embassy in the Philippines. Paul took about a month to get himself ready for his trip. During his preparation, Janet gained the opportunity she had been looking for since she started working for him. At the same time that Paul and Janet established their sexual relationship, suicide bombers bombed Capitol Hill while the Senate was in session because of the most crucial issues, the immigration bill. The bombing left all the senators dead, forcing the president and the Supreme Court to run the nation. Janet wished that Paul would marry her and informed him so, but Paul said that his desire for polygamy would not allow him to get married. So Janet invited eight of her girlfriends-Vicky, Monica, Comfort, Judith, Sarah, Mary, Maggie, and Florence-to come over and spend the weekend with her and Paul, catering to Pauls whim of sleeping with multiple women. The relationship went from a week to a lifetime, as Paul kept the girls when they asked him to keep them. Monica then convinced Paul to invest in a charity by allowing them to operate orphanages around the world and adopt orphans in the name of their charity, which was Pauls Foundation. Paul granted them five million dollars and ten percent of five million every year thereafter to open and manage orphanages around the world. Paul also introduced them to his family, which included his socialite mother and his brother, the publisher of a major magazine. When the president declared the year a tax-free year for individuals...
