

The Rainbow of Promise: In the U.S. District, Fourth Circuit, and Supreme Courts (Paperback)

By MR David Thomas Silvers Sr

David Thomas Silvers Sr., 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Some think Government is an adversarial Gladiator game to belatedly and dramatically entertain a fickle crowd of intruders with suspense while wretchedly neglecting the emotional distress and misery they attempt to afflict on another. The Chief Justice of the U.S. Supreme Court stated life is a game of balls and strikes. How about neglecting nightmares in youngest son, slander from eldest son, others debauching youngest daughter, and default in Civil Court? What is that ball and strike count? How about favor in a State Circuit Court, State Supreme Court, and State District Court? What is that ball and strike count? How about the U.S. Supreme oligarchy is incompetent when thinking there is a general rule to dictate the age of nature after unpredictable menstrual cycles, surpluses and deficits in population, then thinking life is a game when only left to belatedly decide what is vigilante justice or murder after retrieving the deceased on the inner-city streets? A Court has flunked when not opposing encroachments from vulgar commoners, totalitarian socialists, and unscrupulous flatterers with their extraneous interference, excessive entanglements, tumultuous encroachments, and...
