Navy Yard, New York, in Nov; 1851, and at Washington City, in May 1852, to Examine Certain Desiccated Alimentary Vegetable Substances, Prepared After the Process of M. Masson, Chief Gardener of the Central Society of Horticulture of France, By The attention of the Bureau was drawn to the subject of the desiccated vegetables by the following notice in a newspaper in May, 1851: Important Discovery. - At the last meeting of the Horticultural Society, London, various dried vegetables, such as peas, haricot beans, Brussels sprouts, carrots, turnips, c., were exhibited from Peyrusset, Moller Co., of Paris. These were stated to have been dried by a process peculiar to Dr. Gannal, the celebrated chemist and embalmer of animal substances. This process is understood briefly to consist in dividing the larger vegetables into pieces, and placing them in an apparatus into which dried air is driven, until they have parted with all the...
