Forgotten Books, 2017. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Archaic Rock Inscriptions: An Account of the Cup and Ring Markings on the Sculptured Stones of the Old and New Worlds This rock is the largest of all the inscribed stones discovered and yet it is but a fragment, for part of it has been quarried away on the south side it is in situ, rising 10 feet above the ground on the south side, with a short abrupt slope to the south, and a larger slope towards the north and west: it is 60 feet in length from. East to west, and 40 feet in its broadest part. Rising so much above the ground, it is more ridged and irregular in its surface than most other rocks. Untrimmed by art, it is rough as nature has left it, and yet over all parts - over ridges and hollows, as well as over smoother places, the mysterious figures have been incised. How many figures may have been on this rock originally, it is impossible to say; now, fifty-five are traceable on its northern and western slopes, and five more on its weather-worn and deeply guttered southern aspect. Doubtless, the whole stone had been covered with inscriptions, and originally there would not be less than one hundred figures. Most of the figures are typical forms. One of them has a hook like process at the side; here is an arched figure like a recessed Gothic doorway; here are concentric circles with two and three grooves issuing from them here are horse shoe forms, and here is the singular figure with nine radiating grooves from the top of the outer circle. This appendage was first noticed in 1855, when Mr. John Stuart, Secretary of...
