BEATING PROCRASTINATION: THE PROCRASTINATORS ULTIMATE GUIDE (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Procrastination , you wouldn't even know the spelling of the word and you might have already developed the syndrome. You wouldn't be here otherwise. Well, now that you have taken a step towards overcoming procrastination this could be your way out to a better tomorrow. As a human being you are bound to social interaction. Parents, teachers, friends, colleagues, associates etc., you maintain a relationship with each of them. There is another relationship that you exercise every day and this relationship is stronger and deeper than all the others put together and that is the relationship you share yourself. You talk to yourself, don't you? Be it a real life event, a hypothetical situation and even a movie for that matter, intellectual debates are a colossal intervention. These points that make take down subconsciously converse with you at the most irrelevant times thus, creating an extraterrestrial environment. Procrastination is the urge to work on those not - so - important tasks rather than concentrating on the main task that may have a deadline or may have to be considered with utmost importance. Procrastination is a basically a product of the extreme laziness. You just want to put off the things for the next hour or the next day or even next week without giving any heed to the consequences that may follow. You just get into the loop of convincing yourself that it is not important and the clock just keeps ticking mercilessly. However, you have to remember that exam that you have to prepare for or the paper you would want to present should be completed, you start working on it immediately or wait until..
