There are not many mothers like you, Gavin said, laying his hand fondly on Margarets shoulder. There are many better mothers, but few such sons. It is easily seen why God could not afford me another. Gavin, I am sure that was lightning. I think it was; but dont be alarmed, mother. I am never frightened when you are with me. And I always will be with you. Ah, if you were married- Do you think, asked Gavin, indignantly, that it would make any difference to you Margaret did not answer. She knew what a difference it would make. Except, continued Gavin, with a mans obtuseness, that you would have a daughter as well as a son to love you and take care of you. Margaret could have told him that men give themselves away needlessly who marry for the sake of their mother, but all she said was- Gavin, I see you can speak more composedly of marrying now than you spoke a year ago. If I did not know better, I should think a Thrums young lady had got hold of you. It was a moment before Gavin replied: then he said, gaily- Really, mother, the way the best of women speak of each other is lamentable. You say I should be better married, and then you take for granted that every marriageable woman in the neighbourhood is trying to kidnap me. I am sure you did not take my father by force in that way. He did not see that Margaret trembled at the mention of his father. He never knew that she was many...
