Excerpt from Sea-Music: An Anthology of Poems and Passages Descriptive of the Sea And what is the cause of this? The feverish attention lately given to colonial matters on the Continent, and the talk of Imperial Federation in England, show what is the general opinion as to the cause. A great racial struggle for life is imminent in Europe, outlets for the teeming populations of the old world are urgently demanded, and practically there are no new countries left to develop. In the new world of the North-west and in the new world scattered over the boundless bosom of the great Southern Ocean the whole of the lands in the temperate zones have been appropriated, and by whom? Mainly by the English. That this is the cause of England's present dominance and of her stupendous future has now become an axiom on the Continent.
