

Cannabis Coffeeshop Journal 2017: Writings on Coffeeshop Culture (Paperback)

By Steven James Pratt

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Cannabis Coffeeshop Journal 2017 rolls up a crop of writing, carefully defocused through a lens pointed at cannabis coffeeshops in Amsterdam, and cannabis culture worldwide. The shorter pieces are paraphrased from published news items in the Netherlands. The writings gloss social, scientific, political and psychological perspectives on cannabis mixed with some light hearted tips and useful advice. Presenting comparisons between some cannabis tolerant states and municipalities. Highlighting local and international developments with a focus on production, transport and distribution regulations. Contrasting registration requirements, taxation models from different regions. There are millions of rave reviews about cannabis increasing appreciation and depth perception of art, among other positive attributes. Synesthesia between music and painting, dance, film, food and literature are experiences reported by people who consume cannabis. I hope this writing and the order of articles can produce a similar meeting between senses. For the most part the writings were created in 2017. Some pieces may seem like they were written while high, which is true, but please let me explain something that author Robert Anton Wilson taught with regards to writing while...
