East2west Press, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Nailing on the 500th Anniversary! About every 500 years, a pivotal event and revolutionary upheaval has transpired in Christian history. It is termed the 500-year cycle. On October 31, 1517 (allegedly), Martin Luther nailed his 95 Theses to the door of his home church in Wittenberg, Germany. This event launched the Protestant or Great Reformation. Unfortunately, that Reformation stopped far short, addressing only one of the two great works of the Messiah--that of salvation. It ignored Jesus everlasting kingdom. Therefore, on this 500th anniversary in 2017, wouldn't it be just like God to launch The Next Great Reformation? In this booklet, you will discover: Why the central teaching of Jesus is no longer central of most of his Church. Why Jesus kingdom is caught up in conflict and confusion. A historical comparative between 1517 and 2017. The nailing of these 96 New Theses for discussion and debate. How we Christians could turn the world upside down again. For such a time as this.
