Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Exposition of the Errors of the New York State Colonization Society: In Its Late Attacks on the American Colonization Society State Society, beginning about June, 1869, arguing that funds should not be given to the American Colonization Society for sending out emigrants, because they were not needed; nor for the promotion of education, because that Society could not lawfully receive or use them; but should be given to the State Society, which had more comprehensive powers. These publications contain representations concerning matters of fact, which it appears to be a duty to correct. The Differences In New York. The title-page of the Statement sophistically hides a very important fact. The Differences of the State Society were primarily and mainly with a very large and respectable portion of its own members. They had been growing for many years, and culminated, in New York, in November, 1869, when a new Society was formed, called the New York Colonization Society. It was organized at a meeting called with the cordial approval, in writing, of Samuel F .B. Morse,...
