Excerpt from A Sermon Preached in King s Chapel, November 22, 1835: The Sunday After the Funeral of the Rev. James Freeman, D.D Five sabbaths ago, I had occasion to observe to you, my brethren, that it was then fifty-three years, since our father, the senior pastor of this church, commenced his ministerial services here. I said also, that his active labors having been suspended for a long period by the will of Providence, he was on that other, and perhaps more difficult post of duty, standing and waiting - that he was standing, calm, cheerful and composed, his lamp trimmed and burning in his hand, waiting to hear the cry, Behold the bridegroom cometh! At length the cry was made at midnight, and the bridegroom came. The servant was found watching and ready, he has gone in with his Lord, and the door is shut. Doth our father yet live? In the sense in which the words of the text were originally spoken, we know that he does not. If we answer the question according to its first and literal...
