He communicates his system for the cure of stuttering with much confidence, from having directed his entire attention to the subject for a considerable number of years, and from its being the result of extensive and long-continued experience. The sufferings of persons afflicted with complicated and inveterate hesitations of speech are evident to all who witness them: and it cannot but be felt and acknowledged to be of paramount importance to a cure that the cause should be perfectly comprehended; this, the Author conceives, is the only probable means of attaining a successful method of treating impediments of speech, and he trusts that he has accomplished the object.
