Herald Press (VA), United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 130 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Most persons, especially as they are aging, wonder, How will I die? Will I have a good death? Will I suffer? How will my family respond? How can we manage the dying process better? Author Dr. Glen Miller, a retired physician, had his own wake-up call when he suffered a heart attack and determined to help himself and his patients go gently into that good night. Dr. Miller emphasizes that good preparation for the inevitable-by individuals and their families-will ease this transitional time of high stress and high emotion. The book brings a unique perspective related to the author s professional career and personal medical history-doctor of internal medicine who cared for dying patients, healthcare administrator who understands how the healthcare system works, and Christian who thinks that dying can be a natural part of life. All of this is in the context of the author s own healthcare narrative and his personal search for a good death. With compassion honed by serving overseas among poor and despairing people and the practical ideas gleaned from his medical practice, Dr. Miller provides rich guidance to aging persons to live more fully and to proactively plan for a good death. 172 Pages.
