The Story Summary Time-span (1966-2006): This is a narrative story. The main character s name is, Ben Logan, and he was born and raised in, Western-Massachusetts. He was raised in a Blue-collar Working-class Family, and he enlists in the full-time active-duty U.S. Coast Guard, just 3 weeks after graduating from High School in 1984, but 4 years later, he learns the hard way that he suffers from alcoholism, and that there is strong evidence of the illness in his family history on both, his mother and father s sides. He is forced to be discharged under Honorable conditions for alcohol abuse, but is issued a strict Re-enlistment Code that prevents him from getting back in. Then he goes home to his family, and a few years later, he has a spiritual awakening and begins to thoroughly learn the Christian faith and study the Holy Bible. Through Christian faith and sobriety, he eventually works his way through college as a double-major and studies, Criminal Justice and Political Science, and he graduates successfully 6 years later at...
