Is Venus, or Mercury, ever seen in the opposite quarter of the heavens from the sun? It is apparent from Fig. 166 that these planets can never be on the opposite side of the earth from the sun. 1160. Is the same true of the other planets? All the other planets revolve on the outside of the earth s orbit, and may be seen, at different times, at all angular distances from the sun in the heavens. 1161. Illustrate by the figure. When the earth is at E, Mars might be at M, or in opposition to the sun, and would rise in the east about the time the sun was setting in the west. 1162. What is known of the physical peculiarities of Venus? Venus is surrounded by a dense and cloudy atmosphere, like Mercury, and has lofty mountains on...
