THE TUB OTHER STRANGE TALES (PAPERBACK)

Red Salamander Press, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A blend of absurdist and traditional realist fiction, these twelve tales offer an extended meditation on suffering and the loss of meaning in our modern world - a world in which characters often find themselves subject to forces over which they have little control. In The Tub, for instance, a young community college instructor wakes to discover that his fate is tied to the fluctuating water level of a tub in his backyard. In The Target, nature suddenly turns against a quiet tax advisor, and the simple life he once enjoyed rapidly dissolves. In We Really Do Have a Hell of a Dean, an anthropology professor feels compelled to fly in cannibals, a woman who breastfeeds animals, and boys who snack on tarantulas to keep his students from texting during class. And in Goad's First Visit, God turns up in the form of a wildebeest to inform poor Irk that he will be the first of his creatures to receive a soul.
