Excerpt from Land Policy Circular: November 1937 An act to provide facilities for water storage and utilization in arid and semi-arid areas was enacted no appropriation was provided therefor. The Secretary of Agriculture was authorized to formulate and keep current a program for construction and maintenance of necessary facilities, and to dispose of them upon conditions; to cooperate with other agencies and persons, to furnish financial aid, and to acquire lands for such purposes. The Secretary is empowered to require, as a Condition of extending benefits to land not owned or controlled by the United States, the enactment of State and local laws providing for soil conserving land uses and practices, and the storage, conservation and equitable utilization of water; (2) agreements or covenants in regard to the maintenance and permanent use of such water, facilities, or lands benefited by such facilities; (5) contributions in money, services, materials, or other wise, to any operations conferring such benefits. A second enactment for the same purpose later called for an appropriation of to be expended under the reclamation laws by the Secretary...
