By Judith Hassan

JESSICA KINGSLEY PUBLISHERS, United Kingdom, 2003. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Judith Hassan has written a book which will strike readers on several levels. Dedicated to the memory of her parents - her mother was a refugee from Nazi Germany - it tells of the growing understanding derived from working with Holocaust-survivors. The Holocaust brings many lessons for all of us. Hassan s particular lesson is that it is possible to help those who carry deep within them old and desperate wounds. The lesson extends to suggesting that we could do the same for others whose wounds are fresher, perhaps more accessible. And she shows us how help might reasonably be given. - Jewish Chronicle This book describes what the author has learned, from working at the Shalvata Centre in London and setting up the Holocaust Survivors Centre (HSC) next door, about the sort of services that can help those who survived the trauma of life in a Nazi concentration camp, or flight in the kindertransport, to realize their capacity for joy and contentment in the latter part of their lives. - Jewish Quarterly Some suffering, like certain grief leaves scars beyond those who experience it..
