By Kathryn Le Veque

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Casey Cleburne is the descendant of the great Confederate General, Patrick Cleburne. Beautiful and intelligent, she s a single mom with two boys working as the personal assistant for the newly-elected President of the United States. Enter Secret Service agent Phillip Henry Colt Sheridan IV, the descendant of the renowned Union General, Phil Sheridan - enormous, handsome and brilliant, Colt has earned himself the nickname of The Anti-Christ in the ranks of the secret service for his intimidating persona and no-nonsense tactics. Colt is newly assigned as President Talbot s Special Agent in Charge and when the descendants of two great Civil War generals meet face to face for the first time in the halls of the West Wing, sparks fly as the woman the president fondly calls The General clashes with the man known as The Anti-Christ. But the sparks swiftly turn into genuine interest, and Casey and Colt soon find themselves enveloped in a powerful romance. Danger and intrigue lie below the surface, however - although Colt is indeed a Secret Service agent, he is also a double agent for...
