John Wiley and Sons Ltd, United Kingdom, 2009. Paperback. Condition: New. 1. Auflage. Language: English . Brand New Book. A detailed look at the worst MA deals ever and the lessons learned from them It s common knowledge that about half of all merger and acquisition (MA) transactions destroy value for the buyer s shareholders, and about three-quarters fall short of the expectations prevailing at the time the deal is announced. In Deals from Hell, Robert Bruner, one of the foremost thinkers and educators in this field, uncovers the real reasons for these mishaps by taking a closer look at twelve specific instances of MA failure. Through these real-world examples, he shows readers what went wrong and why, and converts these examples into cautionary tales for executives who need to know how they can successfully navigate their own MA deals. These page-turning business narratives in MA failure provide much-needed guidance in this area of business. By addressing the key factors to MA success and failure, this comprehensive guide illustrates the best ways to analyze, design, and implement MA deals. Filled with in-depth insights, expert advice, and valuable lessons gleaned from other MA transactions, Deals from Hell helps readers avoid the common pitfalls associated with this field and presents them with a clear framework for thinking about how to make any MA transaction a success.
