Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The United States Blue Book: A Register of Federal Offices and Employments in Each State and Territory and the District of Columbia With Their Salaries and Emoluments The undersigned, editor of this manual and of the monthly departmental journal, entitled The United States Record and Gazette, offers his services to those in need of information, advice, or assistance, in any matter requiring the action of the legislative, executive, or judicial authorities at Washington, or elsewhere, at home or abroad, or in any matter wherein the inquirer may have cause to believe that he can be better or more speedily informed, advised, or assisted, than at home. Persons who deem themselves to have just and efficient claims and influences upon the public patronage which have not been recognized, may find in this offer an opportunity of obtaining such special information and advice as they need to make their efforts successful; but the undersigned does not profess to be able to influence appointments, directly or indirectly. Persons who are in want of political, official, or historical information, which can be more readily obtained from the immense collection of manuscripts, bound and pamphlet books, and records accumulated at the seat of government than by other means, are invited to avail themselves of this agency. Persons interested in getting cadetships, lieutenancies, or medical appointments, in the army, or cadetships, or pay, medical or marine appointments in the navy, can obtain necessary information. Many years residence at Washington, with daily experience within and before the public offices, justifies the undersigned in asserting that he can often perform material service to the absent or inexperienced, and to such he extends the..
