Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 279 x 216 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Crime and Criminal behaviour is something that affects everyone. The question over the Centuries has been, why do some people commit crime? What are the effects of that crime on the community as a whole? Those involved in criminal psychology ask these questions concerning behaviours as part of their career and research paths, this question is often asked by the Gardai, Prison services, Offender institutes and the Judiciary in the course of their jobs. This course examines the way in which psychology helps us to understand how criminals behave and help us to apply that to the Criminal Justice System (CJS). Readers will consider what criminal psychology is, how it is used in the study of crime and criminals. They will examine different types of psychological theories, and explain criminal behaviour in the context of them offenders and us general public Readers will investigate these perceptions and how the world sees themselves alongside their perceptions of criminals. Readers will examine the research methods actively used by professionals, including the ethical issues which are raised when...
