

Teaching Efl to Students with Dyslexia: A Handbook for Practitioners

By Louise Ebenhoh

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 279 x 216 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Lively, original, motivating and fun, this book offers practical advice on how to improve your EFL lessons for your student with dyslexia. Written by a qualified EFL teacher and dyslexia trainer, and based on sixteen years of experience, this book

1. explains, step by step, how to make lessons multi-sensory;
2. looks at the four language skills in turn and discusses how to make them hands-on for the student;
3. shows how to make learning vocabulary physical;
4. looks at each tense individually and shows how to teach it kinaesthetically;
- and 5. targets specific aspects of grammar and demonstrates with examples, how any grammar point can be adapted to make it accessible, physical and memorable for a student with dyslexia.

This book is purely practical: it shows how to structure a lesson in a way that makes use of the strengths of the dyslexic brain. It looks at how people with dyslexia learn - the creativity, the problem solving, the ability to see connections, the big picture approach - and uses these strengths to inform lesson-planning. It also...
