Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Manual of Instructions for School Authorities and School Physicians: Issued Jointly by the Indiana State Board of Education and the Indiana State Board of Health, as Provided in Section 5 of the Medical School Inspection Law, Approved March 6, 1911 The most valuable asset that any child can possess is good health. The health of the child very largely determines the success of the adult, and what we should be most concerned about in education is the laying up of vital assets for use in the active battle of life. One of the most commonplace of our proverbs tells us that: Prevention is better than cure. yet it has heretofore been with the greatest difficulty that the public could be convinced that the prevention of defects in school children is better than their cure. The State of Indiana has taken a forward step in providing by law for the erection of sanitary school houses and for medical inspection of school children, and it will not be long until every school which makes any claim to progressiveness is provided with...
