Excerpt from Pigs to Market It is amusing to speculate as to what would have been the reputation of John Crowfoot to-day as the author of the sequence of novelettes, Taxi, Lovely Reason, Simon Simon, and The Door to Freedom, all published serially in prominent magazines, and as to whether the most perspicacious critic would have linked these extravaganzas of New York life with the authorship of Home, John Bogardus, Through Stained Glass, White Man and Not All The King's Horses.
